April 2022
Vol. 4 No. 9

Writing with Fire Film Discussion
Thursday, March 31, 2022
6:00- 7:30pm (MST-AZ)

Join a panelists as they discuss the Oscar nominated, Indie Lens Pop-Up film, "Writing with Fire," in the midst of a patriarchal news landscape, the reporters with Khabar Lahariya – India's only all-female news network – are taking it upon themselves to redefine power.

Watch the film tonight on your local PBS station or on PBS.org.

RSVP

Soul Food & Superheroes
Wednesday, April 6, 2022
6:00- 7:30pm (MST-AZ)

Our cultural admiration of superheroes in fiction such as comic books, anime, movies and cartoons is immense. Yet, real life social justice "superheroes" are often looked upon societally in disdain.

Join us for a conversation inspired by artist Therosia Reynolds' "Soul Food & Superheroes" on re-framing representation of Black, Indigenous, and People of Color in comics and superhero pop culture as aspects of social justice.

RSVP
Event Alert

Missing & Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls & Two Spirit
Thursday, April 12, 2022
6- 7:30pm (MST-AZ)
Virtual

Join us for a panel discussion concerning MMIW (Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women) and underlying issues present in portrayals of Indigenous women, girls, and two spirit individuals in social media, press, and politics.

A conversation led by Native women, this event aims to elevate MMIW awareness, advocacy, and policy-making.

RSVP

Event Alert

Film Discussion: Try Harder!
Thursday, May 12, 2022
6- 7:30pm (MST-AZ)
Virtual

Indie Lens Pop-Up presents, "Try Harder!" At a prestigious public high school with a majority Asian American student body, fiercely competitive seniors share the dream, and the stress, of getting into a top university.

Please view the film ahead of time, available on PBS.org Monday, May 2. Then join us for a panel discussion, including high school students, teachers and more.

Watch the trailer here.

RSVP

Internship Opportunities

Project Humanities is now accepting applications for summer interns. Please check out all the opportunities, open to high school, undergraduate and graduate students. And spread the word!

Deadline: Monday, May 2, 2022

Internship Information
Homeless Outreach Updates

Next Day of Service: Saturday, 9 April 2022
New Fall/Winter time: 7:30 am to 9:30 am

Make sure to join the Project Humanities Service Saturdays Facebook group for up-to-date information.