Humanity 101 has the potential to change the world

Arguably, the values upon which Humanity 101 has built its foundation should be the central drum beat to any community, organization or company as each of these is about relationships. Imagine the possibilities if values such as integrity, compassion, kindness, forgiveness, self-reflection, empathy, and respect were not only taught, but continually nurtured and developed throughout every stage and faction of life. The possibilities for positive change are infinite.

Humanity 101 is committed to making it happen. Through the Humanity 101 campaign, Raise 101 Voices, we invite you to join this movement, to turn talk into action, and to leave your mark as we create a better world.

Securing 101 investments of $1,000 will provide critical funding for the Humanity 101 movement to launch nationally, while expanding its toolbox and spreading its values, outward.

By joining the Raise 101 Voices campaign, you become a Founder of the Humanity 101 Movement, forever recognized as a pioneer of this movement in action. If you share our appreciation and the importance of these values, please join us.

Humanity 101 will change the world!
